GUEST INSTRUCTORS

Lisa Perkinson holds a BA in dance from James Madison University and an MFA in dance from Sarah Lawrence College. While in graduate school, Lisa trained extensively with Sara Rudner, Peggy Gould, and Kathy Westwater focusing on teaching methods, writing and research, and choreographic inquiry. Her choreography has been presented at Bennington College, Sarah Lawrence College, James Madison University, Hollins University, and Dogtown Dance Theatre. Lisa has taught advanced Modern, Ballet, Improvisation and Composition courses at Sarah Lawrence College, Gotta Dance! School of Performing Arts, Inc., and Appomattox Regional Governor's School for the Arts and Technology. Lisa danced with RADAR prior to moving to New York for graduate school. Currently Lisa is the full-time dance teacher for Binford Middle School, an arts-integrated school located in Richmond, VA.

Kelly Hamlin began her dance training at a young age. During her youth she received scholarships by The Professional Dance Teachers Association and Dance Educators of America. Over the course of her training Kelly has studied at The Richmond Ballet, The Joffrey Ballet, The Dance Theatre of Harlem, and Ballet Hispanico. Shortly after attending Radford University, she moved to New York City. Kelly is a proud graduate of The Alvin Ailey School's Certificate Program as well as Broadway Dance Center's Professional Semester Program. Throughout her 13 years in New York as a professional dancer, Kelly has performed works by Alvin Ailey at City Center and The Apollo Theatre. She has also performed with The Nai Ni Chen Dance Company, Errol Grimes Dance Group, Genisis Dance Company, Jennifer Achibald/Arch Dance Co., Earl Mosely/Diversity of Dance Company, Milton Myers, M'bewe Escobar, SSC Productions, Riverbank Dance Collective and JP Dance Group. In addition to her extensive performance credits, Kelly has also toured nationally and internationally, performing abroad in Lithuania, Russia, Poland and Germany. In the summer of 2015 Kelly returned to Richmond VA to start her own modern dance company, Krash!Dance Theatre.

Taneya Cleveland is presently studying Dance at the Appomattox Regional Governor's School for the Arts and Technology. Taneya is a student at Gotta DANCE! School of Performing Arts. Taneya has been an Apprentice Teacher for the past two years in ballet and modern. While on the studio dance team, AVEC Movement, Taneya performed a solo that scored the highest score of the competition. As a student at ARGTS, Taneya has performed in and choreographed for numerous performances. Taneya auditioned and was accepted into The School of the Richmond Ballet's Summer Trainee program. She also performed at the Carpenter Center with The School of the Richmond Ballet in their performance of The Nutcracker last December. We know Taneya has many more professional opportunities awaiting her.
